THANK YOU: FIRST COMMUNION

Congratulations to all the children who received their First Communion in April. Thank you to Fr. Currivan, the Do This in Memory group, to Valerie Walsh, singers and musicians. To our Schools, Principals, teachers especially 1st Communion class teachers Ms. Sandra Brennan, Ms. Lisa Riordan, and Ms. Eimear Hartnett who worked with such commitment. To all who prepared both Churches and grounds for Communion and Confirmation ceremonies. Thank you to Parents, Guardians grandparents/godparents and the wider community who were involved in any way to help the children on their faith journey at this special time. The Sunday 10am Mass on the Feast of Corpus Christi May 29th will be a special occasion where we will be joined by the First Communion children and their families. This is a lovely opportunity for the children to take part and again dress in their Communion clothes.

SCHOOL GRADUATION MASSES

EXAMINATION TIME.

We pray for wisdom, understanding and courage for all doing exams. Before you take your exams, remember this simple fact – YOU ARE AMAZING. You have gifts, talents and abilities that are unique to you. You have something special to offer this world, something that cannot be taken away, or added to, by these exams, please remember that. Your worth, your value, in GOD'S EYES is not affected by your performance in these exams over the next few weeks.

GOD ALREADY THINKS YOU ARE AMAZING.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED IN OUR CHURCH

We thank all who throughout the year volunteer in our Churches, and take this opportunity to ask for more volunteers as Readers, Altar Servers (from third class up), and Eucharistic Ministers in both Churches, and to distribute communion one morning a week to St. Michael's Nursing Home. Collectors are also needed for 6.30pm Vigil Mass, and Church cleaning which takes place once a month. Without volunteers our Church cannot survive and grow. If you would consider volunteering, please visit our website www.ccpp.ie or contact any of the Parish Pastoral Council members (names at back of the Church). Thank you
